

Nonfiction Literacy Learning Tools

1. Changing Viewpoint
2. Completing Forms
3. Developing Nonfiction Writing Skills
4. Developing Oral Language Skills
5. Developing Oral Language Skills: Presenting Arguments
6. Developing Publishing Skills
7. Developing Research Skills
8. Developing Skills: Following Instructions
9. Developing Writing Skills
10. Form: Accordion Format
11. Form: Alphabetical Dictionary
12. Form: Class Diary
13. Form: Menu Format
14. Form: Play Script Format
15. Form: Recipe Formats
16. Form: Scrapbook
17. Form: Writing Letters
18. Form: Writing a List Poem
19. Form: Writing a Wall Story
20. Genre: Writing Biographies
21. Genre: Writing Dictionaries
22. Making Connections Across the Curriculum:
  - Art
  - Dance
  - Drama
  - Games
  - Literature
  - Math
  - Music
  - Writing

23. Preparing and Using a Checklist
24. Reading a How-to Text
25. Using Alphabetical Order to Organize Ideas
26. Using an Alphabetical List to Organize Information
27. Using a Bulleted List to Organize and Present Information
28. Using Captions
29. Using Charts to Present Information
30. Using a Collage to Present Information
31. Using Color to Organize Information
32. Using Comic Book Format to Present Information
33. Using Diagrams to Present Information
34. Using a Display to Present Information
35. Using Drawings to Present Information
36. Using a Flow Diagram to Organize Information
37. Using Graphs to Present Information
38. Using Illustrations to Help Understand Text
39. Using Illustrations to Present Information
40. Using Illustrations with a Scale
41. Using Images to Present Information
42. Using an Index
43. Using Insert and Zoom Diagrams
44. Using Labels on Drawings and Illustrations
45. Using Labels and a Key to Present Information
46. Using Lists to Organize Information
47. Using a Log to Organize Information
48. Using Maps for Information
49. Using a Mobile to Present Information
50. Using Models to Present Information
51. Using a Numbered List to Organize Information
52. Using Personal or Authentic Experience

53. Using Photographs for Information
54. Using Photographs to Show Steps in a Process
55. Using a Picture Diary to Organize Information
56. Using a Picture Glossary
57. Using a Picture Web to Organize Information
58. Using Speech Bubbles
59. Using a Story Board to Organize Information
60. Using Storyboarding to Present Information
61. Using Symbols to Present Information
62. Using a Table of Contents
63. Using a Table to Organize Information
64. Using Tables to Organize Information and Ideas
65. Using a Time Line
66. Using a Tree Diagram to Organize Information
67. Using Web Diagrams to Present Information
68. Using the World Wide Web to Gather Information
69. Writing Captions
70. Writing and Following Instructions
71. Writing Strategy: Innovating on a Text