Colleague Visits

Colleague visits offer opportunities for us to share ideas and practices. Grade level meetings are so filled with "business" items that there is often no time to discuss our teaching and get input from other professionals whom we admire and respect. This nine weeks we are providing you with the opportunity to watch a guided reading lesson (taught by one of your colleagues) and to spend a few minutes afterwards discussing what you noticed. Please sign up for a time below. You only need to sign up for ONE time. Although the lesson will be different each time, the area of attention or focus will be the same. Other areas can and will be discussed- we are only selecting these areas because we felt they would be important for that grade level at this point in the year. We hope you find these visits to be very beneficial and productive.
